We hold monthly speaker meetings the third Friday of every month, May featured Chase B. from Benton and June 19 will be Dana B. from Little Rock. We follow speaker nights with a unity outing to the bowling alley and welcome everyone to join us. In an effort to encourage Seventh Tradition donations, we are reinstating our Cash App for members who do not carry cash. Who We Are is unable to make a donation to the Area at this time. Thank you for letting me be of service, Chad M.

RCM Report

Good Afternoon Central Arkansas, We had a productive regional meeting on May 2&3, 2026 in Hot Springs AR. Chad and I were both able to attend. I have included in my report the outcome of the votes taken back to region, they are as follows:

M2026-05-01: To have the treasurer term follow the budget and financial schedule of the RSC with the term starting with the February RSC for next election cycle.

- INTENT: To help the two schedules and terms more align with a better training schedule for more understanding with the new treasurer each year.
- Policy: pg.12 Terms of office insert #3
 - The nomination and voting schedule for treasurer and Treasurer-in-Training would be staggered from others by one RSC (Nominations open - May; Close in August; Vote in November; Start in February)
- Additional Content: When I first started as the actual treasurer I felt overwhelmed and a little undertrained to prepare a budget as one of my first duty as a new treasurer for the RSC. This schedule would have allowed me to know more about the position and how to better understand the budgeting process especially regarding accruals.
- SUPPORTED

M2026-05-02: To create a Public Relations Adhoc to brainstorm methods for reaching non-member addicts returning a project plan to RSC by August 2026.

- INTENT: To increase awareness of NA in broader population.
- Additional Content:
 - Wendy B. and Crystal S. have volunteered to lead
 - Six additional members have volunteered to participate
- SUPPORTED

HOSPITALS AND INSTITUTIONS

Hello! We have had two subcommittee meetings since I've been the chair, and attendance and participation to these has been excellent! We have had several newcomers attend the workshops each time. So we have lots of willingness to serve in the area! We are currently going into 14 facilities. We had a change in panel leaders: Jimmy took over for James at Fort Roots. Also Shannon stepped down from The Haven, because of the way things are being done there. Apparently, they implemented a new policy of not requiring the clients to go to the H&I meetings, but instead they have the option to go have free time somewhere else. I have spoken to the director but it seems nothing changed. So Larry and some of the other panel members will step up and take over that Saturday night. We also had an issue with the women's Magnolia house where nobody answered the door to let the panel members in on Wednesday night. They tried ringing the bell for a while and finally left. I will get a phone number and follow up about this. Our panel members' time is valuable, and we don't want their service wasted. If anyone is interested in getting involved let me know! We always need more people to serve. Thank you for allowing me to be of service! Love, Sarah E.
